

The Bubble Mystery

Toot-Toot was very happy.
She was going to the pond for the first time. Bath time!

At first, Toot-Toot was scared of the water. But when she saw all the other goats splashing around, she jumped in!

Everyone laughed. Everyone splashed. Everyone played and played!

Toot-Toot soon found bubbles all around her. They were going blop blop blop! She was a little afraid.

But she soon got over it.
Toot-Toot began to jump, dance and twirl through the bubbles.

After that fun day, Toot-Toot began to wonder, 'How are bubbles made?' She asked her Baba. Baba said he didn't know.

Toot-Toot asked her Ma. Ma said she didn't know, either.

So Toot-Toot decided to solve the bubble mystery all by herself.

She flapped her tail in the water... She blew into the water with all her might... But she didn't make a bubble!

One day, Toot-Toot's tummy was hurting. She wondered what to do.

She decided to bathe in the pond's cool water.

There was a deep rumbling in her tummy. Suddenly, gas escaped from Toot-Toot! Pssshhhhhhtttt! As the gas shot through the water, bubbles popped up to the water's surface. Blop blop blop!

Finally, Toot-Toot had solved the bubble mystery!

Now, whenever it's bath day, Toot-Toot makes the most magnificent bubbles of all.

After her first bath day,
Toot-Toot's sister asked her how bubbles were made.
And what did Toot-Toot say?
Why, she told her sister she didn't know!
