If an egret could dance, it
would dance with one leg.

If a horse could dance, it would dance with two legs.

If an elephant could dance,
it would dance by swinging
its leg.

If an otter could dance, it would dance by jumping.

If a chicken could dance, it would dance fast.

If a snake could dance, it would dance beautifully.

If an owl could dance, it would dance in circle.

When they dance, they are happy.
